London, 6th February 2020

Aristocrat Technologies Europe Ltd has signed a distribution agreement with Grupo VID that will see all of Aristocrat's Helix+™ housed games for the Spanish salon segment exclusively distributed by VID Comercial, the commercial arm of the Malaga-based company.

Under the deal, Aristocrat will supply all hardware and software, which currently includes Mighty Cash™ Link and Lightning Cash™ games. VID will take responsibility for all sales, installation, service and supply of spare parts.

James Boje, Aristocrat Managing Director – EMEA, said, "Aristocrat and VID have been working in close partnership since 2009, covering distribution of all Aristocrat salon products in the southern region of Spain. This new agreement strengthens the relationship, extending the reach to all parts of mainland Spain, together with the Balearics, Canaries, Ceuta and Melilla, as well as incorporating local expertise in logistics and ongoing customer support."

Isabel Rodríguez, President of Grupo VID, said, "Aristocrat has a history of innovation in Spanish salons and has a well established reputation as a market leader in trend-setting new concepts. The new line-up of Helix+ games has resonated very well with players throughout the first wave of Andalusian sites and we now look forward to bringing this new and exciting brand of entertainment to all regions."

Ends.
