

Chief Financial Officer to Depart, Transition Process Underway

Sydney, 8 December 2021

Aristocrat Leisure Limited (ASX: ALL) today announced that Chief Financial Officer Julie Cameron-Doe has resigned, after more than eight years with the business and four years in the CFO role. Ms Cameron-Doe will work through her six month contractual notice period, and support an orderly transition process in the months ahead before taking up a new role as CFO of Wynn Resorts, Ltd.

Aristocrat CEO and Managing Director Trevor Croker said "Julie has been an exceptional partner to me and the leadership group over the past four years, as Aristocrat's scale, diversity, resilience and cultural growth has accelerated."

"I regret but fully respect Julie's decision to seek a new opportunity at this time, for personal and family reasons, after many successful years with Aristocrat. I look forward to working through a smooth transition process with Julie in the coming months, and to providing an update on Julie's successor in due course."
