Response to media speculation

Aristocrat Leisure Limited ('Aristocrat') has become aware of media speculation that it is in discussions with US gaming manufacturer Video Gaming Technologies, Inc. ('VGT').

Aristocrat confirms that it is in advanced discussions with VGT, and conducting final due diligence, however notes that there is no certainty that discussions will ultimately lead to a transaction.

VGT is a leading designer, manufacturer, distributor and operator of gaming player terminals and centrally determined gaming systems. VGT supplies recurring revenue products and services to customers in the United States and Mexico.

Aristocrat has a disciplined approach to transactions and would only contemplate an acquisition that is consistent with its strategy, enhances shareholder value and is materially accretive to earnings and cashflow.

Aristocrat will keep shareholders informed of any further developments in accordance with our continuous disclosure obligations.
